“ Rest in Peace Aunt Liz. Thank you for making your house like a second home for me. If it was for a day or a week I always felt welcomed. Thank you for making huge meals for our family on Thanksgiving and Christmas. And thank you for having a generous and golden heart even when things were rough. You're with Gram and Aunt Gloria now. You know god always takes his best children with him. We'll miss you.

“ It was so wonderful that we spoke to each other and had made plans for our first try at making empanadas this Saturday. I pray that God blessed her as she entered Heaven and that He provides her precious children with many happy memories of your lives with your mom. Much Love, Cousin Rita

*Dearest Lizzy,
I can think back to our childhood days and how much fun we had playing tether ball on the corner of your home. The laughs and jokes we used to tell each other, especially about "boys".
Wow how great you have moved on to no more pain.
Forever in the house of the Lord. See you when I get there.
Much love and respect.
Rest in peace Lizzy.
Love, Sharon G.*

My friend/ sister we've had more than 40 years shared. You were there for the births of my children and I for yours. We've gone through hell and back but you always kept a smile on your face no matter how hard life got you down, you were one of the strongest women I've known and a Wonderful Mother and friend! You had the biggest heart and would help anyone in need.... I will truly miss your crazy sense of humor and that beautiful smile ❤️ Fly with the angels now, your no longer in pain. ❤️❤️❤️🙏🙏 I love you Liz ❤️❤️
