In tears we saw you sinking, we watched you fade away you faced your task with courage, your spirit did not bend. And still you kept on fighting until the very end. God saw you getting tired, when a cure was not to be, so he put his arms around you and whispered "come to me." so when we saw you sleeping, so peaceful and free from pain. We could not wish you back to suffer that again. Always remembered and forever missed by kristina deanda and family

“ The very first time I met Joe, I'm gonna be honest he scared me a little and then he introduced himself and all the fear went away, he was the nicest person I have had the pleasure to meet. I don't think I will ever be able to watch "Rock-a-doodle" again because it will remind me of an awesome man who left us way too soon... Rest in Heaven, Joe... Your job on earth is done...

“ My lil brother and i had so many memories good and bad but the good out weights the bad he was always into the cholo way of life he felt that he was my older brother he was alway reminded by me that he wasn't but after the first time i quit didnt want to argue about it we both knew the truth. Baby brother i know you are in a better place I know you are now with grand ma-pa Ramirez all of our uncles and Aunt Helen and cousin kumbie. Carnal i am so sorry for our last argument n i know we both broke the family rule of not including our kids in adult Plato and now i wish that i could change everything. I love you and miss you bro, i know you will be at my wedding and i know you will watch over not only your kids but i know you will be there for all your nieces and nephew's especially my new baby Izzy and i know you will pop in on mom just let her know. I know most wont like that i wrote this but idc he was my baby brother so on behalf of my family ( my wife Kathleen our kids Jay, Rabbeka, Raeonna, marissa, Larrissa and Danielle ) and our grand kids olivia cole and alayna R.I.P.
