“ I only knew him as the smile behind the counter at Bubba Chinos in Wheat Ridge but my husband and Rich used to take turns giving me a hard time and we would laugh everytime he was there. I would tease him about his scooter and he would just smile and say that "all the ladies love it" My heart goes out to his friends and family. The saddness I feel can only be the smallest of a fraction of what the people who knew him personally must feel. But he definately must have ben pretty special for a customer such as myself to be affected. Rest well Rich.

“ Wow its sad to know that we will go into Bubba chinios and not be welcome with smile and his great personality.... he was a great guy and will be truly missed. When I took my son to eat we were the only ones in there at the time and as were sat down to eat lil rich would come ask " is everything OK " as we sat there he was so happy and bubbly and had a smile on his face. Rich always took care of his customers and making sure they were happy and satisfied. Rich u will be missed by so many. May u rest in peace and the lord be with u and ur family.

God bless u all and find it in ur hearts to put him at peace and become your angel

“ Ecclesiastes 3:1-12

*To everything there is a season,
A time for every purpose under heaven:*

2 A time to be born,

And a time to die;

A time to plant,

And a time to pluck what is planted;

3 A time to kill,

And a time to heal;

A time to break down,

And a time to build up;

4 A time to weep,

And a time to laugh;

A time to mourn,

And a time to dance;

5 A time to cast away stones,

And a time to gather stones;

A time to embrace,

And a time to refrain from embracing;

6 A time to gain,

And a time to lose;

A time to keep,

And a time to throw away;

7 A time to tear,

And a time to sew;

A time to keep silence,

And a time to speak;

8 A time to love,

And a time to hate;

A time of war,

And a time of peace.

9 What profit has the worker from that in which he labors? 10 I have seen the God-given task with which the sons of men are to be occupied. 11 He has made everything beautiful in its time. Also He has put eternity in their hearts, except that no one can find out the work that God does from beginning to end.

*12 I know that nothing is better for them than to rejoice, and to do good in their lives, 13 and also that every man should eat and drink and enjoy the good of all his labor—it is the gift of God.
I am so sorry for your loss. God Bless You All.*

I'm truly blessed to have had the honor and Chance to have you in my life, I will always treasure the time we had and forever carry you in my heart! I love you Rich Forever n ever!
To the family, I'm so sorry for your loss. I know this is hard and there's not much anyone can say or do to make it easier! Just know that he's in a better place and in the end Rich is the winner, I'm sure he's rejoicing! Give all your pain and sorrow to God, he will help you! God bless all!*
